

Week 5 Interview Reflection

Q1.

What is something that you did well during the interview? To get full credit, you need to provide details or examples.

Suggested topics for interviewee: clarified problem, described thought process, completed initial question, described efficiency, fixed mistakes, etc.

Suggested topics for interviewer: asked questions, encouraged the interviewee, helped get solution on track, asked good follow-up questions, etc.

Q2.

What is something that you could improve for the next interview? To get full credit, you need to provide details or examples.

Suggested topics for interviewee: could ask more questions about the problem, spend more time planning, organize code better, etc.

Suggested topics for interviewer: could describe the problem better, help the interviewee stay on track, provide more encouragement, ask more questions, etc.

Q3.

What did your partner do well in the interview, and what could they improve? To get full credit, you need to provide details or examples.

Suggested topics for interviewee: was the interviewer prepared? Did they help if you got stuck? Did they ask good follow-up questions? Were they attentive?

Suggested topics for interviewer: was the interviewee able to complete their solution to the problem? Did they ask good questions? Did they describe their thought process? Were they able to accommodate follow-up questions?

Q4.

Do you have any other general comments (optional)?